Hemet PD Officer Passes Away At Home

Hemet, CA — The Hemet Police Department mourns the loss of Officer John Dombrowski, a nine-year veteran of the Hemet Police Department, who passed away peacefully at his home today. The cause of death is unknown at this time.

John was hired as a Police Officer Trainee in April 2013 and was reclassified and sworn in as a Police Officer upon graduation from the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Training Academy in October later that year. During his time with the Hemet Police Department, he worked Patrol and was later assigned as a School Resource Officer in 2017 where he impacted the lives of hundreds of students before returning to Patrol in 2019.

Officer Dombrowski served the City of Hemet and its residents with class, honor, and dignity. He will be greatly missed by his brothers and sisters in blue here at the Hemet Police Department. John Dombrowski is survived by his wife, son, and daughter. Please join us in extending prayers and our deepest condolences to the Dombrowski family as they mourn their loss.

Thank you to the Hemet community and our law enforcement partners for your support during this difficult time.

John Dombrowski
